THE 21ST ANNUAL HARVEST BALL

Saturday, Nov. 14, 2009

7 p.m. - midnight

Show Place Arena

Upper Marlboro, Maryland

Proceeds from this year's Harvest Ball will help purchase technology for our soon to open Breast Care Center at Calvert Memorial Hospital in the new Calvert Medical Arts Center on the CMH campus. The center – the first of its kind in Southern Maryland – will provide local women with access to the same quality of care you would find in a major metropolitan area. The new technology will ensure that our physicians will have a full set of tools at their fingertips to quickly diagnose and treat patients who visit the center.
